

Emil Michael*Chief Business Officer, Uber Technologies, Inc.

Emil Michael is the Chief Business Officer at Uber, a technology platform that is transforming the way people and things move around cities in 68 countries around the world. Since joining Uber in 2013, Emil oversees the company's business and fundraising efforts, including M&A and the growth of Uber in China. He also leads dozens of strategic partnerships and initiatives like UberMILITARY, an effort to increase the number of veterans who drive with Uber. Emil was named by Fast Company Magazine as one of the 100

Most Creative People in Business in 2014.

Previously, Emil was the Chief Operating Officer at Klout, Senior Vice President of Field Operations at Tellme Networks, Inc., and an associate in Goldman Sachs in New York City. Emil served as a White House Fellow, where he worked as a special assistant to Secretary of Defense Robert Gates.

Emil is currently an investor and advisor to several technology companies, including Fundbox, Gusto, and Lookout.

Emil was born in Egypt and went on to earn degrees from Harvard University and Stanford Law School.